

PRESS RELEASE

The Wareham Police Department will be placing a special emphasis on enforcement of underage drinking. We will be conducting compliance checks throughout the year to ensure that our licensed establishments do not sell alcohol to minors. It is our intent to identify and prosecute those individuals who provide alcohol to our young people as well as targeting underage drinking.