FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

After being on the run for several days, Wareham Police Detectives have captured Nicole Petronelli, 23 and Brian Duffy, 28. As a result of their investigation, Detectives and patrol officers converged on the Wareham Wal Mart on Cranberry Highway just after noon today where they were arrested inside the store. They were taken into custody without incident and booked at the Wareham Police station. They are currently being held without bail at the Wareham Police Station and will be arraigned tomorrow morning, Wednesday Dec. 10th at Wareham 4th District Court.

They were wanted on multiple felony warrants and are charged with breaking into residential addresses in West Wareham and the Indian Mound section of Wareham. They are charged with stealing over $10,000 worth of goods. When arrested, they were found to be in possession of numerous pieces of jewelry from a house break that was reported less than 24 hours earlier in West Wareham. Detectives are continuing their investigation into numerous other house breaks in the Wareham area.

Public Information Officer William Fihlman would like to thank the news media for broadcasting their pictures that ultimately led to their capture. Chief Stanley wishes to thank the Wareham Police Detectives and patrol officers for their perseverance in searching for these felons and to those concerned citizens for calling in their tips.
